

Support "United to End Racism" by selling UER pins

United to End Racism (UER) is a project of the Re-evaluation Counseling Communities. UER will participate at the Non-Governmental Organization (NGO) Forum of the United Nations World Conference Against Racism, Racial Discrimination, Xenophobia, and Related Intolerance in Durban, South Africa, at the end of August 2001.

to talk about UER and our delegation to South Africa, and a chance to listen to people's thoughts and feelings about racism and possibilities for ending racism in our societies. By buying the pin, people can also have a concrete way of supporting UER.

Each pin costs $10.50 (U.S.), including shipping and handling. (Washington State residents, please pay $11.40 per pin to include sales tax.)

Take UER pins outside the RC Communities. These attractive hard-enamel pins with the UER logo provide us with an excellent opportunity to go public with United to End Racism and the United Nations Conference Against Racism. Wearing the pin provides each of us with an opening
